

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

As of: 10/15/24, 11:55 AM
Received: October 09, 2024
Status: Pending_Post
Tracking No. m22-iavy-k933
Comments Due: October 09, 2024
Submission Type: Web

Docket: PBGC-2024-0001
2024 SORN Notices for Comment

Comment On: PBGC-2024-0001-0002
Privacy Act; Systems of Records

Document: PBGC-2024-0001-DRAFT-0001
Comment on FR Doc # 2024-19638

---

Submitter Information

Name: Anonymous Anonymous

---

General Comment

I agree that the proposed amendments to the system of records notices are a necessary step in ensuring a consensus with the Privacy Act of 1974. By making specific amendments, the PBGC is enhancing transparency and also reinforcing the protection of individuals' personal information. This will help clarify how data is collected, used, and safeguarded, ultimately creating greater trust between the PBGC and the public.